During hard times - like a single mom facing a job loss or an unexpected medical emergency - many people rely on relatives and friends for support. But for some parents in our community struggling with social isolation, this is not an option. We provide temporary care for children and supportive relationships for parents to prevent families from being torn apart. We offer safe, loving homes with volunteer Host Families and wraparound care from Community Friends in partner churches.

<https://www.ncdhhs.gov/divisions/social-services/local-dss-directory>

North Carolina's Safe Surrender Law allows a parent to surrender a newborn up to seven days old to a responsible adult without the parent providing his or her name. Safe Surrender is legal and aims to prevent newborns from being hurt or abandoned. Do your best to make sure that the baby is healthy, warm and clean. Then find a responsible adult who will assist you with the surrender of your newborn. Your best options for a Safe Surrender contact include: health care provider, law enforcement officer, social services worker, emergency medical personnel.

BIRTHDAYS

Bright Blessings

<https://www.brightblessingsusa.org/bless-a-birthday>

1150-C Crews Road, Matthews, NC
28105 | 704-846-2329

At shelters and housing programs, this program offers all the traditional birthday fun, plus educational and enrichment activities. Our parties include meals, cupcakes, treat bags and lots of love and attention for the kids! Many of these children have never experienced a birthday party or received new presents, but being in the spotlight and feeling a positive sense of self are oftentimes the gifts that mean the most. (con'd)

For transient homeless students, our birthday and care packages are delivered anonymously to local schools. Elementary age students receive birthday treats to share with classmates, giving them a chance to feel confident and a sense of normalcy among peers. Middle and high school students receive a birthday bag with supplies and special sweets to take 'home' and celebrate with family. All students served also receive new presents, books and academic supplies, healthy snacks, as well as a care & comfort set.

The Barnabas Center (Roger Edwards, Kurt Zuiderveen)

<https://thebarnabascenter.org/>

442 S. Main Street, Davidson, NC 28036 | (704) 365-4545

Kurt Zuiderveen joined The Barnabas Center in 2008. Kurt earned his bachelor's from Grand Valley State in Michigan and his master's in counseling in 2004 from Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida. Before joining The Barnabas Center, Kurt gained counseling experience through private practice, the church setting, and state-funded counseling programs. Kurt is trained in EMDR, which is a therapeutic way of processing trauma focusing on the mind/body response to distressing situations.

Kurt sees individual men, women, and couples for:

- Anxiety
- Depression
- Grief
- Marital conflict
- Past trauma
- Sexual brokenness

Through a kind understanding of the problem and a curious exploration of our internal reaction to that in a safe place, Kurt believes that healing/change/growth can happen even if the situations do not change.

Called to Peace

Wake Forest, NC 27588 | 919-374-0778

Called to Peace Ministries exists to provide a compassionate, comprehensive, and Christ-centered response to those impacted by domestic abuse. Domestic abuse can happen to any one of any race, age, sexual orientation, religion, or gender. It can happen to couples who are married, living together, or who are dating. It affects people of all socioeconomic backgrounds and education levels. Unfortunately, statistics are no better for women within the church.

Feather & Field counseling focuses on partnering with clients to cultivate areas of lightness and spaciousness in their lives, spaces often hidden underneath layers of anxiety, depression, isolation, and fear. Borrowing from the language of creativity, I love partnering with individuals and couples to discover their unique wiring. This involves uncovering blockages to feeling supported in meaningful pursuits, while using an eclectic blend of mindfulness-based cognitive behavior therapy, narrative therapy, as well as Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) techniques. Treats Depression, Anxiety, Relationship Difficulties, Life Transitions, Difficulties with Self-Esteem, Professional/Career Issues, College/Graduate School Issues, Stress Management, Postpartum Depression/Anxiety, Spirituality, Addiction

19810 W. Catawba Ave., Ste E, Cornelius, NC 28031 | Phone: 980.689.1919

I am a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor in North Carolina and a member of the American Counseling Association. I am also an adjunct professor in multiple graduate counseling programs. My counseling work spans across the lifespan with teens, young adults, adults, and high level athletes. I specialize in concerns including, but not limited to, grief, trauma, anxiety, depression, athletic performance, chronic pain, and disabilities. I received my bachelor's degree from Davidson College, my Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and am currently a PhD Candidate in the Counselor Education and Supervision program at Regent University. I utilize a holistic approach that takes into consideration the physical, spiritual, mental, emotional, and relational aspects of who you are. I work within your beliefs, values, and attitudes, and respect the diversity of your experiences and perspectives. I use a depth work framework of Internal Family Systems, EMDR, Experiential Therapy, and Narrative Therapy as my main approaches. However, I also utilize DBT and CBT as clients need. I have previous clinical experience in a hospice agency setting, religious institution, private practice, and within a Division 1 athletic department. I am currently only seeing clients virtually in order to provide effective and accessible mental health care.

The Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of America ("NACA") is a non-profit, community advocacy and homeownership organization. NACA's primary goal is to build strong, healthy neighborhoods in urban and rural areas nationwide through affordable homeownership. NACA has made the dream of homeownership a reality for thousands of working people by counseling them honestly and effectively, enabling even those with poor credit to purchase a home or modify their predatory loan with far better terms than those provided even in the prime market.

The State Home Foreclosure Prevention Project (SHFPP) is a partnership of government agencies, HUD-approved housing counseling agencies, legal assistance organizations, mortgage servicers and community organizations. SHFPP provides homeowners with referrals to free resources through partner housing counseling agencies that may be able to help them avoid foreclosure. Help is offered to any N.C. homeowner who has received a 45-day pre-foreclosure notice via a “Foreclosure Help” letter from the N.C. Housing Finance Agency, giving a toll free number to call.

As a HUD-approved counseling agency and SHFPP partner, Financial Pathways can review clients’ situations with them, identify options to avoid foreclosure, link low-income clients to legal assistance, and help clients work with their mortgage servicers. Counseling is available over the phone and face-to-face.

In partnership with First Book Charlotte, and thanks to the generosity of local donors, our Gift of Literacy program distributes more than 6,000 new books each year to the children we serve. Our library shelves at the Giving Village are filled with books for children of all ages. From board books and first readers to chapter series, classics and award-winning titles, we are committed to providing the wondrous gift of reading to kids who have few, if any, new books of their own.

Our mission at Matthews Christian Library is to provide resources to strengthen your family and faith. All the materials on our shelves are carefully selected to reflect the truth found in God's Word.

We offer a wide variety of materials which are available for our patrons to check out: Bible reference materials; adult Christian fiction and classic fiction such as Charles Dickens; resources for homeschool families; level readers; DVDs for children and families; great audio resources for children and adults, including all the Adventures in Odyssey, Jonathan Park, and Your Story Hour; as well as current magazines for adults and children.

We also have resources from a Christian perspective that address many relevant issues facing individuals and families, including educational choices, money management, separation and divorce, single parenting, and death.

There are quiet work areas, computer work stations, and reading nooks for research, study, or relaxing with a good book.

Trips for Kids Charlotte is a chapter of Trips for Kids, a national 501c3 nonprofit youth development and education umbrella organization. Trips for Kids' mission is to give every kid in every community the opportunity to know the joy of riding a bike and the freedom to explore the natural world on two wheels.

Programs include: Discovery Rides, Adventure Clubs, Mobile Bike Clinics, Earn-a-Bike Workshops and Youth@Work programs that help youth to be more active, experience natural places, gain environmental and STEM-based knowledge, build confidence and develop job readiness skills.

We also run the Charlotte Re-Cyclery, where we refurbish donated "dusty not rusty" bicycles for use in EAB and to sell to the public. Proceeds from the Charlotte Re-Cyclery help support our programs.
